LONDON

With 8 hostels in London to choose from, you can tailor your experience of the English capital to suit your tastes. Stay at our Shepherd's Bush hostel and explore the West End, or head north to our Camden Hostel for live music and the city's best collection of markets.

To the east you'll find our hostel in Greenwich and over in London's Southbank neighbourhood we've got a trio of hostels, just around the corner from the famous Tower Bridge, and the River Thames. Here we have The Village, the female only Oasis hostel at one end of the high street and in the middle The Inn, with a very tasty gastro-pub downstairs.

On top of all that you can also stay in our Hammersmith hostel, ideally located - close to Heathrow and the rest of London, with an unbeatable choice of transport links.

All eight London Hostels are within walking distance of the London Underground and the London Underground is connected to the train stations that run to Heathrow, Stansted, Luton and Gatwick airports.

LONDON BRIDGE

If you want to stay in a traditional English setting then look no further than the very first St Christopher's Inn at 121 Borough High St. This pub dates back to the 1500s and it even has some World War Two scars.

At this hostel we have top entertainment and a touch of true English class. The rooms available include 4, 6 and 8 bed mixed dorms, and private twin rooms.

You're in a very central location when you stay at any of the St Christopher's hostels in London Bridge.

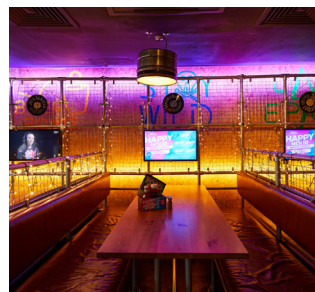

St Christopher's Inn is nestled between two of our other hostels on Borough High Street. It's easy to get to from both the London Bridge and the Borough Underground stations, which link up to the Northern and Jubilee Lines.

Just over the road you will find Borough Market - a fruit and vegetable paradise with organic foods, wild game burgers, crocodile and kangaroo meat, international cuisine, and free samples everywhere you turn. It's also where several key scenes in Bridget Jones were filmed.

A short 5-minute walk will take you to the River Thames and the scenic Southbank. This takes you past the picturesque Tower Bridge, the stoic Tower of London, the infamous Shakespeare's Globe Theatre and the weirdly wonderful Tate Modern Gallery. Also en route you will come across the British Film Institute, the London Eye, London Aquarium and Westminster Bridge. This short 45-minute stroll leaves you at the Houses of Parliament, Westminster Abbey and Big Ben.

If you don't want to do it all in one go you can always stop off at one of the many bars, pubs and restaurants. The variety is wide enough to suit any palate and budget.

There's so much to see and do in London and the odds are that you could spend an entire year here, and still not tick everything off on your To Do list. Give it your best shot and at the end of the day when you're absolutely exhausted, you'll be happy to come home to St Christopher's.

SHEPHERD'S BUSH

No other London hostel is closer to the Shepherd's Bush Empire and no other London hostel is closer to the biggest shopping centre (Westfield) in the northern hemisphere - just over the road. When you stay here you're also close to the famous theatres of the West End and you can easily reach Hammersmith, Notting Hill, Soho, and Chinatown.

HAMMERSMITH

Situated in the heart of West London's transportation hub - this hostel is the ideal location to begin your exploration of London. We're only 11 stops away from Heathrow on the Piccadilly line (of the London Underground) and we're nextdoor to one of London's biggest bus stations.

From your St Christopher's base you'll have easy access to the Hammersmith Apollo, the Lyric Theatre and the Riverside Studios.
